Empanelment of Professor of Practice (PoP)

Notification No. IIITR/Faculty/PoP/02/2025 dated 16.05.2025

Indian Institute of Information Technology Raichur (IIIT Raichur) was established by the Government of India in the PPP model in 2019. IIIT Raichur commenced its academic activities in the 2019-2020 academic year. Since January 2021, the institute has begun functioning in Raichur (Transit in Government Engineering College, Raichur). The institute presently offers B.Tech undergraduate programs in Computer Science and Engineering (CSE), Artificial Intelligence and Data Science (AI&DS), and Mathematics and Computing (M&C), and PhD programs in Mathematics, Computer Science, and allied areas.

Indian Institute of Information Technology Raichur (IIIT Raichur), an Institute of National Importance, invites applications from distinguished professionals for the contractual/temporary position of Professor of Practice.

The institute expects, based on their vast experience and life learnings, that Professors of Practice will evolve innovative ways of engaging the students towards learning and assessment exercises. It may invariably involve teaching of any existing courses or the development of a new course approved by the Senate, including examination and assessment of students. Their physical presence on the campus may influence the faculty and other staff as well, and therefore encouraged. The modes of engagement with the students are flexible and hybrid, and can be discussed and finalized before the start of the semester at the time of engagement.
